

Selected for the third consecutive year on the "Leaderboard," The highest rating, in CDP's "Supplier Engagement Assessment"

TOTO LTD. (Headquartered in Kitakyushu City, Fukuoka Prefecture; President: Shinya Tamura) has been recognized with the highest rating of "Leaderboard" in the "Supplier Engagement Assessment" by CDP^{※1}, a global non-profit organization that runs the world's only independent environmental disclosure system. This marks TOTO's third consecutive year of selection.

CDP's "Supplier Engagement Assessment" evaluates companies' initiatives to address climate change within their supply chains, and companies that achieve the highest rating are selected for the "Leaderboard".

TOTO Group aims to achieve a sustainable, carbon-neutral society by 2050 and is promoting greenhouse gas reduction in agreement with international initiatives.^{※2} Furthermore, TOTO believes it is essential for not only its own group but also the entire supply chain to practice sustainability at a high level together, and thus works with its suppliers to promote sustainability.^{※3}

Through its shared value creation strategy, "TOTO WILL2030," TOTO Group has identified "Cleanliness, Comfort; Wellness," "Environment," and "Relationships" as key material issues to address, thereby promoting sustainability management. Additionally, TOTO defined products that realize both "Cleanliness, Comfort & Wellness" and "Environment," as "Sustainable Products" and is working to expand them.

Through these initiatives, TOTO aims to solve environmental and social issues and achieve economic growth, while also contributing to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).
