

TOTO Is Selected for Inclusion in the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index, a constituent of ESG Investment Index., for the 14th Time

Achieves high acclaim for economic, environmental and social initiatives

TOTO LTD. (Headquartered in Fukuoka Prefecture, Japan; President: Shinya Tamura) has been selected as a constituent of the "Dow Jones Best-in-Class World Index"^{*1}, a leading global ESG investment^{*2} index. This marks the 14th time TOTO has been selected as a constituent of this index. Furthermore, TOTO has been selected as a constituent of the Asia-Pacific version, the "Dow Jones Best-in-Class Asia Pacific Index," for the 17th consecutive year.

The Dow Jones Best-in-Class World Index is an investment index provided by S&P Global, Inc. in the United States. It analyzes companies from three aspects: "economic," "environmental," and "social," and selects the top approximately 10% of companies in each industry sector that demonstrate excellent corporate sustainability as constituents of the "Dow Jones Best-in-Class World Index." This year, 317 companies (including 35 Japanese companies, such as TOTO) were selected from approximately 3,500 companies worldwide.

For over 100 years, the TOTO Group has been working to contribute to the development of society through its business, guided by the strong desire of its founder to "provide a healthy and civilized way of life." Currently, under our Mid - or Long - Term Management plan, Shared Value Creation Strategy TOTO WILL2030, the group has identified "Cleanliness, Comfort and Wellness," "Environment," and "Relationships" as key issues to be addressed as "materiality," and is promoting sustainability management.

As one of our efforts toward carbon neutrality in business activities, we are contributing to the realization of a prosperous and comfortable society that is mindful of the global environment by globally disseminating "Sustainable Products" which realize both "Cleanliness, Comfort & Wellness" and "Environment."

Through these initiatives, we aim to solve environmental and social issues, achieve economic growth, and contribute to the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

*1: In February 2025, the name changed from "Dow Jones Sustainability World Index" to "Dow Jones Best-in-Class World Index". The Asia-Pacific version also changed its name from "Dow Jones Sustainability Asia Pacific Index" to "Dow Jones Best-in-Class Asia Pacific Index". *2: Investments that prioritize and select companies that consider environmental (E), social (S), and corporate governance (G) factors.
