

FOUR SEASONS HOTEL LONDON AT PARK LANE

In London

One of the leading 5-Star hotels in the world, Four Seasons Hotel London at Park Lane is set around the historical parks and gardens of central London. With its sundrenched rooms, roof top spa and al fresco terrace, it has all the amenities and luxuries you would expect from this world-famous brand.

Four Seasons opened its first hotel in 1961 and since then has continued a remarkable expansion. Winner of multiple awards and accolades Four Seasons is known in the world for its exemplary service and style. The hotel is a byword for luxury with the interior created by acclaimed French designer Pierre-Yves Rochon. From its inspiring foyer complete with dramatic crystal chandelier and grand piano, alongside the exclusive Amaranto restaurant & bar, right through to the individual rooms and suites, each and every detail is carefully considered - it is a masterclass in finesse.

Four Seasons Hotel London at Park Lane has next level bathrooms that offer über chic sanctuary to their guests. With striking marble surfaces on floors and walls these rooms also include luxuriant baths and showers plus indulgent bathing products from Bulgari. These lavish spaces combine contemporary interior design with the latest technical innovations from TOTO where WASHLET® has been specified in ten of the newly renovated rooms offering guests the ultimate in hygiene and comfort.

TOTO has supplied ten WASHLET® to the recently refurbished rooms; 9 of the latest compact RX EWATER+ and one top-of-the-range NEOREST EW 2.0 with sensor-activated lid, automatic flush, nightlight and continuous-flow water heater.
